

Maria del Carmen Arce

The Professional Side

Nationality:

Bolivian

Education:

Currently working and studying to obtain a Teaching Certificate and a Master's Degree in Education - The College of New Jersey

Michigan Credential for teaching ESL.

Bachelor in Architecture (1989), Universidad Mayor de San Andrés.
Master's Degree in Architecture (1999), (Universidad Mayor de San Andrés).

Bachelor in Ceramics (National School of Arts)

Years Experience:

3 years as ESL Teacher at the Centro Boliviano Americano and 2 years as Elementary Science Teacher and Elementary English Teacher at Saint Andrew's School.

Highlight:

Teaching at A.C.S. after studying here for 14 wonderful school years

Professional Duties:

Elementary Computer Lab

Best Part About the Job:

Sharing, enjoying and interacting with children.

The Lighter Side

Family:

My 3 "boys": Juan Pablo 22 (Studying Civil Engineering), Jorge 21 (Studying Biology), and Luis Bernardo 17 (Graduating from High School). My always supportive mom and grandma (103 years old). 3 loving brothers: Carlos (Literature & Spanish Professor - Cerritos College, California), Ramiro (Mechanic Engineer - La Paz), and Juan Pablo (Biologist - Washington D.C.).

Interests:

Traveling, trekking, ceramics music and computers.

Favorite Book(s):

John Grisham's "A Time to Kill" and "The Partner", Wayne Dyer's Selections and Gabriel García Márquez novels.

Favorite Quote:

"Never measure the height of a mountain until you reach the top."